

What Now?

A Checklist to Prepare your Group for the Adopt-a-Caseworker Program

- Schedule for Sondra Uzzell to present the Adopt-a-Caseworker program to the rest of your group/organization (if needed)
- Contact Sondra Uzzell, Director, if you have any unanswered questions
- Decide if this program is a good "fit" for your group
- Identify a Primary Representative for your group/organization
This person will communicate with the caseworker on a regular basis, coordinate group efforts to fill needs, coordinate pick-up with the caseworker, keep a monthly record of items requested and donated by the group, and share concerns/needs/comments with Ambassadors for Children
- Identify a Secondary Representative for your group/organization
This person will assist and fill-in for the Primary Representative as needed
- Make sure Primary and Secondary Representatives for your group are willing to attend a free luncheon in January to receive more details and training
- Determine the length of your commitment to the program
- Determine the level of resources your group could provide for a caseload (may or may not be based on group size)
Fewer resources 1 ~ 2 ~ 3 ~ 4 ~ 5 More resources
- Brainstorm ways your group could gather resources to support a caseload (see idea sheet attached)
- Does your group want to support other Ambassadors for Children programs until the Adopt-a-Caseworker program starts in January 2009? If so, which ones? (see brochure for description of other programs)
- Contact Sondra Uzzell, Director, if your group is interested in other programs
- Help us spread the word throughout our community to motivate and recruit other faith, business, and civic groups to participate
